Campaign kicks off to have Rt. 113 here officially designated one of our nation's 'Scenic Byways'

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Route 113 between Fryeburg and Gilead is certainly a scenic road, but is it so beautiful that it should be listed as a National Scenic Byway?

Last week the Bethel Board of Selectmen appeared to think so.

By a vote of 4-1, they agreed to endorse an effort to have the road (along with a connector via Route 2 to Bethel) added to the 126 currently designated national byways.

But now the selectmen want to take a second look, largely because of fears the scenic designation might bring with it unwanted restrictions on the use of private properties along the route.

The endorsement letter was requested by Toni Seger of North Lovell, executive director of the Western Oxford Hills Cultural Council.

That group, in partnership with the Androscoggin Council of Governments, has received a grant from the Maine Department of Transportation to prepare a detailed application for Route 113 to be designated a "State Scenic Byway" (a preliminary step in achieving national designation).

One requirement of the state application, Seger said, is that it include a letter of support from every town through which the proposed scenic byway would pass.

'Byway' benefits

The financial benefits of by-

Bethel selectmen initially endorse the idea, but then had second thoughts.

Perfection is good enough

Sean Caddigan takes state free-throw title

By ALISON ALOISIO

Telstar's Sean Caddigan Saturday won the Maine State Foul Shot Championship, held at Husson College.

He did it in the exact same way he won the Western Regional title — by sinking 50 of 50 shots, as well as all 10 of his practice throws.

The competition took place as part of the series of Maine Association of Basketball Coaches All-Star Games, sponsored by the Maine MacDonald's Corporation.

The event pitted stars from all basketball classes against each other in East-West competition.

Caddigan shot against three other regional champions. He competed second among the four, following a player who sank 45 shots.

Pity the two shooters who had to follow Caddigan. The first missed several shots, while the second made 23 straight before missing one.

A routine is the key

How does the Telstar senior get in a mindset that allows him to make 120 consecutive shots over two contests? "I've got a solid routine, and I do it every time," he said. "I take a deep breath, spin the ball and dribble two times, every time. You get in a rhythm."

Friend Ryan Savage passed the ball back to him after each shot, taking care to keep with in the rhythm.

"He's an excellent passer. I never moved my feet," said Caddigan.

If a return pass was off at all, he let it go.

W'stock ice sled campaign raises three times its goal

By ALISON ALOISIO

The Woodstock Fire Department recently completed a more-than-successful fundraiser to purchase a new ice rescue sled for $6,000. They now have the sled — and about $12,000 in extra funds.

Fire Chief Geff Inman said donations totaled about $18,000.

"We're just so humbled that everyone gave so generously," he said.

The buoyant sled can be walked across pond ice or paddled in water to reach a victim who has fallen through the ice.

Because Woodstock has several lakes and ponds, the WFD decided last year the sled would be a valuable tool to have in a rescue effort.

So, late in the year, they put out collection containers in area businesses, and sent letters to town taxpayers re-

From winter bumps to springtime sumps

After a winter of unusually rough frost heaves, many local drivers are now forced to wallow their way through long, deep mud runs. One of the roads most affected (as it is even in normal years) is Howe Hill Road in Greenwood, which has been closed to all but local residents. The return of cold weather Tuesday night allowed town crews to grade most roads, but Howe Hill Road will remain "residents only" until town officials believe conditions have sufficiently improved, according to Town Manager and Road Commissioner Kim Sparks. Town Meetings

Upton agrees to allow ATVs on some town roads

By ALISON ALOISIO

In one of the longer Town Meetings in recent memory, Upton voters last Thursday approved a trial plan to allow ATVs to use town roads.

Twenty-nine residents braved icy roads to attend the two-and-one-half-hour meeting.

The ATV question consumed about an hour of discussion, according to Town Clerk Jim Rector.

A group of local ATVers had requested an article to give them permission to use town roads to access off-road trails.

"They'd like to get to their trails without having to load the ATVs onto a trailer," he said.

Representatives from the Roxbury ATV Club also attended the meeting to answer questions, Rector said. Some roads in that town were opened to ATV use several years ago, he said.

Other Upton residents expressed concerns about safety, noise and liability — issues that already exist because some ATVers use the roads now without permission, said Rector.

Those in favor of allowing limited use of roads said legalizing it would allow for regulation of the recreational vehicles, Rector said.

Residents voted 17-7 to allow sections of East B Hill, Mill and Barnes roads, and Back Street, to be used from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Signs will be posted to indicate what stretches of road are open.

The machines would be limited to a 10-mph speed limit, and would be subject to enforcement by county and state police, and game wardens, Rector said.

Any complaints about riders would be directed to the law enforcement agencies.

The approval comes with an initial time limit of two years. It could be ended early if there are problems, Rector said.

If the arrangement works out well, the selectmen could then decide to continue it, Rector said. "There'd be no reason not to extend it," he said.

The other issue that drew considerable discussion was an article to change the town's accounting year from a calendar year to one beginning July 1. Such a change would synchronize the town's fiscal year with that of SAD44.

But most residents felt there would not be much of a benefit, and the changeover period would be too complicated.

Andover will decide whether to cap surplus

By ALISON ALOISIO

Andover residents will decide how to manage the town's Surplus Account when they gather Saturday for the annual Town Meeting.

The warrant will include an article requested by Wayne Delano that would require, annually, that any money over $80,000 in the Surplus Account be used to reduce taxes.

The selectmen and town auditor are recommending against the move, said selectman Trudy Akers.

According to Akers, the town attorney said Andover should have at least three months worth of town expenses available in surplus.

"$80,000 wouldn't pay our school bill for two months," said Akers.

Delano, a former selectman, has been a regular advocate at past Town Meetings for using significant portions of surplus to reduce taxes.

If all money articles are approved, the municipal budget would total $653,506, Akers said. That is down slightly from last year.

On a separate surplus issue, voters will be asked to take $50,000 from the Surplus Account to reduce 2006 taxes.

That amount was approved by voters at the 2005 Town

Meeting, to reduce taxes for that year, but it was not taken out because of an error.

Among other money articles, voters will be asked to approve using $54,000 from the New Truck Account, together with an additional amount to be raised, to purchase a new plow truck.

Akers said Road Commissioner Marshall Meisner will have information at Town Meeting on the total purchase price.

The truck would replace a 1972 International.

Residents will also be asked to raise and/or appropriate $20,500 for the Highway Equipment Major Repairs and Maintenance Account.

Selectmen are recommending that $10,500 of that be used for the repair of the town's loader.

Last year, $10,000 was approved for the account. But this year selectmen are asking for an additional $10,500 to repair the loader.

The Recreation Committee is requesting $5,000 for Capital Improvements (listed in a separate article). The improvements would include new dug-outs, bleachers and preparation of the ball field.

Bethel begins reviewing town budget for FY '07

By MICHAEL DANIELS

The Bethel Budget Committee and Board of Selectmen met Monday to begin their review of a proposed FY '07 municipal budget of $2,844,517.

Three more joint sessions are scheduled, and more could be added if needed, according to town Finance Officer Marcia Monk.

The review process will produce the budget recommendation that will go before voters at Bethel's annual Town Meeting in June.

The spending level in that recommendation is almost certain to be pared down from the $2.84 million figure currently on the table.

In a letter to the two boards, Town Manager Scott Cole, who compiled the initial budget proposal, said: "As always the upcoming review will allow town officials to assess public priorities of the Bethel community, and make related decisions concerning those priorities and available public resources."

The proposed $2.84 million figure would represent an 8.3 percent increase over approved municipal spending for FY '06.

Municipal spending is only one part of the town budget; county and school-district assessments must also be included in order to arrive at an overall spending figure.

Those assessments are also rising for FY '09 — the county figure by 13.9 percent, and the school district's by a projected 5 percent.

Given those increases, Cole said, "combined town spending for county-school-municipal purposes could exceed $5.2 million in the coming year."

That spending is partially funded by non-property tax revenues, which are estimated at approximately $1.2 million for FY '07.

A BYWAY TO CULTURAL TOURISM

To the Editor:
I am an artist and a business person who founded a regional cultural council in order to provide umbrella support to western Maine's Creative Economy. If you haven't gotten a copy of our cultural map, yet, visit the Greater Bethel Chamber office.
For the last three years, I have fought to bring the Scenic Byways program to western Maine and to place Bethel at the center of a byways hub. Byways is a cultural delivery system capable of bringing a critical mass of visitors to our performance centers, craft outlets, museums and other cultural offerings.
The cultural research I conducted in this region, between 2001-2002, revealed a wealth of native talent that, with support and encouragement, could contribute to economic sustainability while endlessly enriching quality of life.
Cultural tourism is a much needed stimulus for our burgeoning Creative Economy which, in turn, might be our best hope for keeping young people in Maine. The Creative Economy draws on indigenous resources and, from this well spring, builds capacity the more exposure it is given.
Scenic Byways is a sophisticated marketing program that is entirely community based. It has a great deal to offer a region fortunate enough to possess a qualifying corridor. In our case, we have a chance to develop the most important byways in the state.
A spring informational meeting about this project is being planned.
Other background pieces about the project will be prepared for The Bethel Citizen. Please participate with your comments about this exciting opportunity.

TIME TO MOVE ON

To the Editor:
I feel Scott [Cole] was trying to give Everett [Chase] a break, and I thank him for that.
Joy Hart should have looked a little closer, because Everett's daughter was there working with him. You make it sound like he was going to jump on someone who walked by. He mowed the lawn.
I do not argue what he did was not wrong. But he served his time for that. And everyone has got to eat. He also needed a job. His daughter is now in the Army.
So, Hart should leave Scott alone and get on with her own business.

ALL A'S ON HER LAST REPORT CARD

To the Editor:
The town's independent auditor, Mr. Keel Hood, CPA, attended the March 6 meeting of the Bethel Board of Selectmen to provide an overview and answer questions concerning the town's audited financial statements for the 12-month period ending June 30, 2005. The discussion was non-eventful and without surprise. The auditor's report quietly confirmed that the town's books have been well organized and well maintained, without deficiency.
The responsibility and accompanying credit for this condition go to Mrs. Nesta Littlefield, who managed the town's financial records for 28 years and retired in July 2005. Thus, this most recent "report card" will be Nesta's last in a long series of problem-free audits.
The importance of sound financial management in any institution is self-evident. For Nesta, the quietness of the FY 05 audit translates to her standing ovation. Bravo!

TORTURE: A NATIONAL DISGRACE

To the Editor:
It is time to speak up on a matter that is becoming a national disgrace. I ask others to join in asking our country's leaders to take action. The following message, which I have sent to our Maine delegation in Washington, expresses my views:
"I am writing about a subject that concerns me deeply, the use of torture in the name of national security. The U.S. has lowered itself to the level that we used to deplore in other ruthless regimes. Deliberately subjecting detainees to physical and mental pain, i.e., torture, is not acceptable, period. We should forbid it in all situations, whether inside or outside the United States, and whether by U.S. personnel or by outside agencies acting on the U.S.'s behalf.
It is time for someone to take a firm, unequivocal stand, as Sen. Margaret Chase Smith did to turn the tide against McCarthyism. Please help turn the tide against torture."
The addresses for members of Maine's Congressional delegation are:
Sen. Susan Collins, 172 Russell Senate Office Building, Washington, DC 20510-1904. Sen. Olympia Snowe, 250 Russell Senate Office Building, Washington, DC 20510-1903. Rep. WEST PARIS VETERANS' MEMORIAL

To the Editor:
At the West Paris Town Meeting on Saturday, March 4, the citizens voted to establish an account to accept donations for a new Veterans' Memorial Monument. The town's present monument has no room for additional names and has not been updated since the Korean War.
The price for a monument cannot be accurately determined until the number of names to be added is finalized. Please send the West Paris veteran's name, dates of service, and your telephone number to Sylvia McCann, 117 Main Street, West Paris. Donations may be sent to me or the West Paris Town Office with a notation directing the money to the monument fund.
We would like to establish a committee to help with this patriotic, worthwhile endeavor. To join, offer suggestions, or for more information, call me at 674-2114.

MHS VETERANS/NO BOUNDARIES THANKS

To the Editor:
Maine Handicapped Skiing hosted 16 veterans with physical disabilities at its first winter Veterans/No Boundaries program Feb. 5 through 8 at Sunday River Ski Resort and the Sunday River Inn and Cross Country Ski Center. Vets learned to ski, snowboard and snowshoe, all free of charge, with the able assistance of Maine Handicapped Skiing's volunteers.
Veterans/No Boundaries is a special program of Maine Handicapped Skiing, providing free winter and summer adaptive sports lessons to veterans with physical disabilities from any conflict. In addition to free lessons, Maine Handicapped Skiing, thanks to the incredible generosity of businesses and individuals throughout Maine, was able to provide lodging and meals to the vets and their spouses or significant others free of charge for the four-day program in February.
The program was a great success thanks to the wonderful support of many Bethel businesses and individuals. I would personally like to thank Jeri Brooks Greenwell of Brooks Bros. Jeri is a Veterans/No Boundaries committee member and she worked really hard to raise money through her American Legion Post affiliations throughout Maine.
One of the highlights of the Veterans/No Boundaries program was a delicious home-cooked meal provided by members of the American Legion Posts of Bethel and Locke Mills. The dinner, homemade chicken potpie with all the fixings along with a beautifully decorated cake was absolutely fantastic.
All of us at Maine Handicapped Skiing would like to thank the following Bethel businesses for their support of Maine Handicapped Skiing's Veterans/No Boundaries program: Sunday River Ski Resort, Sunday River Inn and Cross Country Ski Center, NY Pizza, American Legion Posts (Bethel and Locke Mills), DiCocca's Market & Bakery, Bethel's Best, Gringo Harry's, The Sudbury Inn, Pat's Pizza, Sunday River Brewing Company, the Snow Cap Inn, The Inn at the Rostay, Norseman Inn & Motel, and the Cameron House.

KOCH FESTIVAL THANKS

To the Editor:
I would like to thank the Bethel Outing Club, Gould Academy, Sunday River, Black Mountain and all the volunteers for making last weekend's Bill Koch Festival a great event.
From what I saw all the kids and adults had a great time. Thank you for all your hard work. Bethel should be proud of itself for its sense of community.

FRED WERNER IS AT HOME WITH HIS LORD

To the Editor:
Earlier this week, we learned of the death of Fred Werner. For almost 10 years in the late '70s and '80s, Fred wrote a small article for the Bethel Citizen called "Walking with Jesus Christ."
It was a simple, pleasant article that focused on daily life here in Maine, and the impact that Walking with Jesus Christ had on that daily walk.
It was a positive, encouraging article that stopped when Fred and his wife, Doris, moved to Florida.
I thoroughly enjoyed his articles, and I'm sure that many of your readers were touched by his column. I thought your readers would want to know that he is now at home with his Lord.

way designation — especially at the national level — can be significant, Seger argued.
Surveys indicate byways are top attractions for tourists, especially for cultural tourists, she said, and cultural tourism supports economic growth, while at the same time helping to preserve the traditional character of a destination area.
"Cultural tourists take an active interest in the history, indigenous culture and creative activity of an area," she said. "They support performance groups, the preservation and historic structures, the work of downtown revitalization and exhibits of local artists and artisans. They tend to stay longer and spend more than conventional tourists and are critical to a region's Creative Economy."
Byway designation, she concluded, "is a means of delivering these tourists."
She also noted that national-level designation means increased access to federal funds.
"We are living in a time of shrinking state and federal resources. When towns cooperate to attain national byway status, they are repaid through access to federal resources," she said. "Grant funding becomes available for maintenance, safety improvements, turnouts, and other features that will enhance the road."

"Preserve and protect" But national-level designation also brings with it a higher level of management oversight.
Each byway must have its own "management group," she said, and that body must commit to "a very complete program of preservation and protection as well as promotion."
That caught the attention of Selectman Don Bennett. "I'm inclined to believe I would support it," Bennett said, "but I can tell you I see a lot of words there that raise the hackles on the necks of an awful lot of people."
"When you start talking about 'preserve and protect' and those kinds of words, there are a lot of people who worry about those things."
When a motion was made to have Town Manager Scott Cole draft a letter of endorsement, four selectmen voted "yes," but Bennett demurred. "Before I put my hand up on any of this I want to talk to my constituents a little bit to see how people feel about it," he said. "I'm going to vote 'no' for now."
Reconsideration But while the endorsement request passed easily, the letter remains undrafted.

Cole told The Citizen this week that two days after last week's vote he was contacted by Board Chairman Stan Howe, who instructed him to delay drafting the letter, so that the matter could be discussed further at the board's next meeting, on Monday, March 20.
Howe told The Citizen: "I've talked to several [selectmen], and I think they may want to reconsider."
"I don't know what's going to happen," Howe said, "but we'll see."
Monday's selectmen's meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the Town Office meeting room.
National designation requires a town vote Seger said later that a letter of endorsement from the town is needed to start the state-level designation process, but the letter does not commit the town to accepting national-level designation (in the event it is ultimately offered).
"There has to be a Town Meeting vote before that can happen," she said.
(A letter to the editor from Seger can be found elsewhere on this page. For more information on Maine Scenic Byways, go to www.maine.gov/mdot and search "scenic highways.")

Van flips on Rumford Center Rd.

ANDOVER — Wilma Holmes, 71, of Andover escaped serious injury Tuesday when her van struck a utility pole on the Rumford Center Road and flipped over. Holmes called her husband, Lawrence, after the accident. He arrived on the scene and found her standing near live wires that came down in the collision. She was taken by Med-Care Ambulance to Rumford Community Hospital, where she was treated and released. Andover Rescue and the Andover Fire Department also responded to the crash.

Norway soldier dies in Iraq

NORWAY — Army Sgt. Corey Dan, a 2001 graduate of Oxford Hills High School, died Monday in Iraq. The exact circumstances of his death were not released. Dan joined the 101st Airborne in 2001, after graduation. He was deployed to Iraq in 2003. The 22-year-old had a three-month old son, Austin, whom he never got to see. He left for his second tour of Iraq in December, the same day Austin was born. Dan is the 10th member of the military from Maine to die in the war.

Kittredge in Iditarod

NOME, ALASKA. — Kim Kittredge, who acquired his love of the outdoors from childhood camping trips to Lone Pine Campground in Newry, is currently competing in the Iditarod dog-sled race. It's Kittredge's first time in the 1,150-mile race between Anchorage and Nome, which started March 4. Racers usually take between 10 and 17 days to complete the course. As of Wednesday, Kittredge was 65th of a total of 83 racers. He is the grandson of Ruth and the late Herb Kittredge of Hanover. For more information, see www.iditarod.com or www.k2racing.org.

Watch out for scam calls

BETHEL — The Bethel Police Department received reports from Bethel residents last week of a telephone scam. A caller informs the person that he or she has won a large amount of money, said BPD Chief Alan Carr. But in order to collect the cash prize, the person must provide an account number or credit card number to use to cover administrative fees. In the cases of the Bethel residents reporting the scam, they knew enough to say no. "Don't ever give out personal information over the phone or on a website, unless you know it's secure," Carr said.

Moose rescued from swingset

MILAN, N.H. — It was a tempting green hedgerow for the hungry young moose. Somehow, a child's swingset got in the way. The moose, who was trying to snack on a backyard hedge Thursday, got tangled in the swingset's chains. The homeowner called police for help. Lt. Jean LeBlanc decided he needed backup, so he called Don Valliere, maintenance man for the Berlin Police, and asked him to bring a pair of bolt cutters. It was up to Valliere, 54, to free the moose. Photos snapped by LeBlanc show Valliere balanced on a beam of the swingset, snipping the chains — just a couple of feet from the 400-pound adolescent moose. "It didn't like the idea too much that I stayed close to it, but it stayed calm," Valliere said Friday. "The only thing I was nervous about was getting bit." The rescue went smoothly and the moose was freed. It left without looking back. "It just real slow, just walked away," Valliere said.

Maine orchid program

PARIS — "Native Maine Orchids" will be the topic of the program at the McLaughlin Garden on Monday, March 20, at 7 p.m. Michael Hicks will give a general introduction to the orchid family, and show slides that he has taken of orchids in Oxford County. Hicks lives in the Bethel area and has been a long-time hiker and woods watcher. Five years ago he started paying close attention to orchids by drawing the various ones he came upon in the woods. This has since become an intense focus as he has now researched and studied the 36 varieties in this area. Join in to "Discover the wonders of Maine Orchids." This is the 3rd in the Monday series of programs associated with the One Book One Community event that is reading and discussing Hannah Holmes book "Suburban Safari: a Year in the Backyard." The public is welcome to attend this program and there is no charge. On Monday, March 27th, the topic will be "Vernal Pools and the Big Night" at the Harrison Village Library at 7 p.m. The presenter will be Bridie McGready from the Lakes Environmental Association.

questing donations. They received contributions from both full-time and seasonal residents, in large and small amounts, Inman said. "They came from all over the country," he said. "We even had one from England." The department must now decide the best way to use the extra money. Inman said the firefighters believe the most appropriate use would be for other equipment to go with the sled. "We're looking into a used pickup truck to haul the rescue equipment," he said. "And maybe a small, flat-bottomed boat. We want to put the money toward what it was intended for."

He said a final decision will be made when they have thoroughly researched the options. "We don't want to rush into anything," he said.

TOP SHOT

Telstar senior Sean Caddigan Saturday won the state Foul Shot Championship by making 50 out of 50 free throws. He is shown here with the championship plaque.

But it wasn't just a good routine that brought him success, of course. He's cultivated his foul shot for years. As a freshman, he had an opportunity during the summer to practice with the Class A Thornton Academy team. "I'd shoot 100 free throws every time," he said. Caddigan's free throw percentage in games was 84 percent. He said because of the opportunity to get into a rhythm, it's easier shooting in the free throw competition than it is in a game. He concluded his Telstar career with 1,474 career points, surpassing Kinsey Durgin's record of 1,109. Next school year, Caddigan plans to do a postgraduate year at a prep school, in order to further hone his basketball skills for college.

All these factors must be taken into consideration when projecting the town's tax rate for the upcoming year. (And before the tax rate is actually set by town assessors, additional factors also enter the equation.)

At this point in the process, Cole's projection is for an FY '07 tax rate of $18.44 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. That rate would be up 4.8 percent from the current tax rate of $17.68.

Spring must have arrived. This morning there were several grackles and starlings at the feeders. They don't seem to mind that they might be a little early, but you can't blame them for being a little confused this year when the weather can't seem to make up its mind.

Brad McLain, son of Steve McLain, celebrated a birthday last Saturday. Brad and his wife, Adrienne, live in Newry. Brad stopped by on his birthday to visit with his dad.

Hugh had a phone call from his brother, Bill Lord, recently. Bill and his wife, Barb, live in the Phoenix, Ariz., area. He called to check in to see how everyone was doing and give us a report on how things were in Phoenix. He was lounging in his back yard, enjoying the warm weather and eating oranges that came from the tree just outside his door. When we were out there to visit a couple of years ago, we had a chance to enjoy those oranges and believe me they are really delicious.

Gilead Historical Society
Just another reminder of the meeting on March 25 at 1 p.m. at the Town Hall.

This week's bit of history comes from an article written in Daisy Peabody's "Mountain Days." It was published in the Bethel Historical Society's newsletter, The Courier. This is just an excerpt from the article, so to get the rest of the story log on to www.bethelhistorical.org.

"Late August days, calm, blue skies overhung with a haze, mildly hinting fall. Still, idle days among the hills, and a party of vacation friends, meeting in this gem of Maine towns, friends of fleeting days — we can scarce say weeks, set about to storm Mt. Washington. By twos and threes we planned the trip. We carried it out, and through the weeks that have since followed, whenever from the busy present I catch a backward glance, it and the pleasant and trifling incidents connected with it, stand clear-cut, a bright summer picture.

"Like the family of that other little maiden, ours was seven. Mrs. Trowbridge, by right of her quiet dignity and her years, was, from the first, our acknowledged head. Mr. Walter Trowbridge, Mr. Mark Pierce, Mrs. Lovie Burnham, Miss Emma Burnham, Miss May Peabody, and Miss Daisy Peabody — these were the

SLOPE SAFETY
Dear Skiers & Riders,
The Sunday River team has always placed a major emphasis on slope safety, but we also know more can be accomplished. With that in mind, we would like to introduce you to our Go With The Flow program.
Go With The Flow promotes the use of sound personal judgment regarding speed and control when skiing and riding. Because "fast" skiing may mean different things to different people, Go With The Flow reminds skiers and riders to be courteous and follow the pace of those around them, especially in high traffic and trail merge areas.
- Be Aware - Pay attention to your surroundings.
- Respect Slow Zones - Slow down at orange signs and trail junctions.
- Follow The Pace - Faster than those around you is too fast.
We invite you to help us create a pleasant and enjoyable atmosphere for all skiers and riders at Sunday River by encouraging safety on the slopes.
Thank you for visiting Sunday River.

yard on the way to Gorham, for it had been decided that they go up the night before, and the rest of us following in the morning. We wished them the best of luck, and remarking for the hundredth time on the prospect of the weather, said good-bye and saw them go, and we, the remaining five, were to start from Gilead at 5:30 Thursday morning. Trowbridge and his friend went to Bethel, got a double carriage, and somewhere found 'Old George.'

Andover

by Melinda Averill

Hello readers — don't forget the Town Meeting on Saturday, then voting on Tuesday evening from 4 until 8.

The president of Andover Service Circle (ASC), Andrea Bretz Savitz, wishes to remind everyone that the Circle is holding its first fundraiser of the year on March 18, the Saturday of the Andover Town Meeting. From 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on the first floor of Andover Town Hall, for $4 per person, attendees will be able to feast on homemade soups, chilies, chowders, stews, breads, muffins and desserts. As always, all monies collected by ASC will be put to use for the benefit of Andover residents through charitable giving.

There is lots of exciting basketball news for several Andover players, as the basketball season winds down.

Congratulations to Katie Mills, daughter of Brian and Sue Mills, on her team's 2006 GRCC Girls Championship win on March 7. The Starzz, coached by Sue Mills and David Crutchfield, went into the playoffs seeded third and stunned the undefeated Comets 33-32. Other teammates from Rumford and Dixfield include Hannah Robinson (granddaughter of Avis Patrick), Lindsey Crutchfield (granddaughter of Lane and Bob McDonald), Grace Herbert, Logan Bryant, Stephanie Janke (niece of Cindy and Stacy Gammon), Addie Gorham, Darbi Brown, Brenna Brown, Kaitlyn Radcliffe, and Sharon Daniels.

This is the second season Katie has played at GRCC in the Girls' Grades 2-5 League. She would like to thank her Aunt Beanie, Aunt Peggy and cousins Sarah and Kelsey Averill for coming to support her team.

Congratulations to Joshua Rainey, son of Tracy and Jeff Rainey, whose GRCC Boys 5-6 team also made it to the championship round on March 7. Josh's team gave it a valiant effort against a sixth-grade laden team. Assistant coach for his team was Jeff Rainey.

The first weekend of March the Mountain Valley Middle School basketball teams traveled to New Hampshire for the Berlin Invitational. Both the boys' team (Izaak Mills is a member) and the girls' team placed third. The girls' varsity team is coached by Brian Mills.

The Andover Eagles played against Crescent Park School on Monday, this being the last game on Andover hardwood for the fifth-grade members of the team. Fifth-graders are Autumn Berry, Kelsey Averill, Courtney Hentschel, Brianna Jennings, Jacob Huff, Sam Perham, Jenna Putnum, Josh Rainey, and Cody Smith.

There will be a family basketball night on March 23, at 6 p.m. hosted by the Andover Parent Teachers. This is when the basketball players take on their parents/family. After the half-time break, other Andover students can play against their parents. It is usually a fun-filled night, so come out and watch!

Jonathan Hammond, son of very proud parents, Lori and Jeff Hall, of Farmer's Hill Road in East Andover, was named to the 2005 fall semester dean's list at the University of Maine at Augusta. Jonathan is currently studying in the field of human services with a GPA of 3.75 and will graduate spring of 2007.

Happy birthday to Jenna Lee Putnum on March 16, and to Elex Pew on March 18.

Congratulations to Bob and Melissa (Bailey) Chase on the birth of their daughter, Sarah Makenzie, on Feb. 24, weighing 6 pounds, 13 ounces. Sarah joins three siblings, Corey-Jean, Jewel and Cameron. Maternal grandparents are Barb and Donald Bailey. Paternal grandparents are Jean and Leon Lewis of Andover and Bub and Pat Chase of Tucson Ariz.

Have a nice, long weekend; there is no school on Friday!

East Bethel

by Nancy Mercer

Alder River Grange had a regular meeting on March 10. It was voted to host the Bethel Senior Citizens in June. The next meeting will be at the hall, if we do not get a ton of snow.

Millie Jackson was surprised with an 80th birthday party at Lorie Olson's in South Paris on March 12. Lesli Mikool of Virginia called and wished Millie a Happy Birthday while she was still at Lorie's.

Debbie Eldridge of Unity came for a visit on March 8 through 10 with Millie Jackson.

Millie Jackson, Roger Twitchell and Nancy Mercer attended Bethel Senior Citizens Club on March 8 at the Bethel Methodist Church.

Kim Shannon now has a house that is a target for cars to aim for.

I do believe mud season is here. The driveways are soft and soupy and a mess.

If you have news give me a ring at 824-3350. Have a nice week. God Bless the Troops.

Hanover

by Clem Worcester

Congratulations to Kayla Brown for being on the dean's list for the fall semester at the University of Maine in Farmington.

Hanover Republicans met last Thursday, a very slippery evening, at the residence of Paul and Lynne Ramsey. They selected a list of Republicans to serve as election clerks for the next two years. They are Paul Ramsey, Joan Everett, Lynne Ramsey, Andrew Barlow, Richard Burns, Barbara Burns, Gail Parent and Gordon Howe.

Freeman Ellingwood passed away on March 4, 2006 at his home in Englewood, Fla., at the age of 87. Before moving to Florida, Freeman and Barbara resided on Main Street in Hanover, just across the street from the store. It was there that the Ellingwoods raised their family. Freeman was congenial and was always willing to help when called upon. He had been a member of the Hanover Superintending School Committee for many years. We extend sympathy to Barbara, sons John and Tom, and daughter Connie and their families.

The Hanover Select Board meeting originally scheduled for March 21 has been changed to March 23 at 5 p.m. at the Hanover Town Office. The reason for the change was conflicting schedules.

On Saturday, Gail Worcester and Rose Hutchins traveled to Westbrook to attend a bridal shower for Amanda Lobley. Amanda and Brad Worcester plan to be wed in April. They live in Lewiston and work in the field of education.

Steve and Beth Pelletier report a recent visit from a bobcat at their Howard Pond home. The cat seemed to be looking for food.

Mason

by Richard Grover

Last Sunday, our "pet" cardinal began singing; sometimes it was, "sooeeet," and sometimes, "prê-tee, prêt-tee," and sometimes just a whistle. I interpreted it as meaning he now officially has spring fever. He has been quiet all winter, except for occasionally fluttering up and down one window after another. We have not seen a female cardinal around since early December, or so.

Last week's warm spell brought out one good sap day, and I collected enough that we canned seven pints of maple syrup on Sunday afternoon. Other than that, it has either stayed too warm or too rainy for the sap to run good. A good sap run requires below-freezing temperatures at night and daytime warmth of around 40 degrees or warmer. When it stays above freezing at night, the sap stops running and waits for a cold snap.

A few days ago, I bought a new rain gauge at Big Lots in Auburn. It is a tapered, clear plastic tube with large lettering on one side with the etched marks indicating the amount of rain. After I opened it, I noticed that the depth numbers are etched on the inside of the tube, and you have to look through the tube to read it. I also noticed during Monday night's rain that the raindrops and fog lining the inside of the gauge make it impossible to read from inside the house because the light reflects off all the little water droplets, obscuring the numbers and depth scale.

Newry

by Sylvia Harrington

Leon Dunn has been working on his maple tree sap lines for several weeks. The first boiling-off will be soon. Cold nights and warm days are necessary for the conditions to be right for maple syrup production.

It certainly was pleasant meeting acquaintances at Western Maine Supply last week.

It is always a treat to go in and get supplies and be greeted by so many smiling faces; and occasionally get news for this column.

Saturday, I drove over to Farmington's Pizza Hut to meet the Smalls, my friends from Orrington, to exchange our Christmas gifts. The waiter seemed to get a kick out of this. We told him that we have been doing this for several years.

It was our latest and maybe our last, as Carol and Tim are planning to move south to be nearer to both daughters and families and to be able to be a part of their lives and not miss out on the growth of their grandchildren, of which there are four.

On Sunday, I drove up through Grafton Notch and noticed that Jock Morton's new home is finished and that the old one in front of it had been torn down.

I have seen Jock and brother, Brooks, working on the building. They have done a wonderful job, a labor of love I would say.

News from the Town Office: Many people turned out for the Town Meeting. Jim Largess was re-elected as a selectman, his wife, Bonnie, is on the School Board, and Alan Fleet remains our dog catcher and constable.

The Board of Selectmen meet on the first and third Monday of each month. The Planning Board meets on the first and third Wednesday of each month. Their agendas are posted at the Town Office. If you need more information about these meetings you may call the office at 824-3123.

West Paris

by Joyce Lamb

We went to bed Thursday night with two inches of new snow on the ground and woke to bare brown lawns. Spring cannot be far away for the neighbors were raking their lawn on Sunday morning.

On Sunday, March 19, the Rev. Glen Turner will be guest speaker at the West Paris Universalist Church. He is a former North East District executive of the Unitarian Universalist Churches in Maine. Church is at 9 a.m. followed by a coffee hour. Jim Burke is organist.

Kyra McLaughlin Flaherty and Kelly McLaughlin Hartley celebrated their birthdays with an ice cream party in Sabattus at the Flaherty home. Those present were Florence McLaughlin and Mel Young of South Paris, Jude Lamb of Lamoine, Peg Lamb and Mike Seaton of Augusta, Kelly and Cameron Hartley with Nicolas and Sophia, Weston of Auburn, Nina and Rob Hyssong with Emily and Joshua of South Portland, Joyce Lamb of West Paris, and hosts Kyra and Gene Flaherty and Molly. Ice cream with many toppings was served with birthday cupcakes.

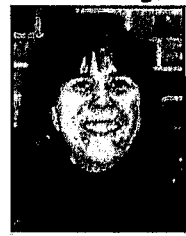

Stacy Dean has recovered from her surgery and returned to work. Son Dustin spent the weekend with her and Vince and Beverly Stevens.

News from Oregon from daughter Wendy Lamb was that it snowed all day producing two to three inches of snow. It was a surprise for they seldom have more than a dusting. They do enjoy the surrounding mountains all winter for there is snow in the higher elevations. Their land is green and brown with white caps all around. Their daffodils are blooming already, for their summer season is much earlier than Maine's. The snow did not seem to bother them.

Buffy is enjoying the sun on the warm hot top in front of the garage. He naps there now and has started rolling in the sand.

Waterford

by Rockie
Graham

It must be spring. One day it is sunny, warm and beautiful, the next it is snowing, then the rains come. As I sit here, on Tuesday morning, it is raining hard. There are puddles everywhere. There is almost enough water to go swimming. Tasha likes that idea. She likes the spring ponds. Here we don't often have them, except for a few hours at a time, after it rains.

Check out the new sign at the Waterford Transfer Station. It is really nice. Muddy River Signs made it. We haven't put up any notices, yet, but we will. It lists our hours very clearly. Take notice Dot.

The new fee schedules are available at the Transfer Station. Ask any attendant for one.

This Thursday is Becky Shaw Day at Mt. Abram. Tickets are $30 and the proceeds go to the Rebecca J. Shaw Paraometric Education Fund.

Missed the Portland Flower Show this past weekend. Had I not had to work, I might have headed there. It was a little pricey, but to see spring flowers in March is almost worth it.

This Sunday the Bethel Rotary has their Country Breakfast. It is at Gould Academy from 7 to 11 a.m. It is a great time. We always try to go.

David and I are off to see the Universal Waste building where they take all of our TVs and monitors. It is in Portsmouth, N.H. David hopes to pick up old TVs to repair. He only takes newer ones that have life left. I want to see what they actually will do with them. For those not realizing it, all televisions, computer monitors and fluorescent bulbs (including those new small ones) have to be recycled. They contain mercury and other poisons. State law requires the manufacturers to buy the TVs and monitors back. That will be good.

There is a Community Supper on Thursday, March 16 (today), at the Wilkins House. Bring a dish to share. It is hosted by James and Caren Long.

Tasha is waiting patiently to go out. I guess I had better take her. Have a great week. Stay dry.

East Stoneham

by Eleanor Nelson

Hi everybody. Are you all enjoying these nice springy days? I could almost rake the backyard but will wait a bit longer on that as we could still get a snowstorm. It is still March. A year ago this date the wind blew and the snow drifted and the power went off. What a difference.

I attended the Stoneham annual Town Meeting last Saturday. There were more people there than I have seen for many, many years. It is usually just a handful of people. I am glad to see more people interested in town affairs. There were several challenges and items for discussion.

John Woodbury was again

the moderator of the meeting and does a good job in keeping people on track of things and running smoothly.

Midge Silvio was re-elected town clerk; Kara Jones was re-elected to the Board of Selectmen, assessors and overseers of the poor; Eleanor Nelson was re-elected to the Planning Board; Frank Roby to the Board of Appeals; and Monika Spooner was re-elected to the Board of Appeals.

The town voted to accept the gift from Midge Silvio of one acre of land adjacent to the Hillside Cemetery to use to expand the cemetery. Condition of the gift is that at no cost to the town a bronze plaque be placed having the inscription "With gratitude to Frances Grant, Midge Silvio donates this land in memory of her beloved Mum, Sally Silvio."

The town also voted to charge a rental fee for use of the Community Room, for non-residents $50 and residents $25, the money to help for professional cleaning of the room and carpet, etc., I believe. Residents also voted to establish a website for the town. Former Selectman Jim Tindler volunteered his time to set this up. This will be helpful with town ordinances and tax information, etc.

A nice lunch was provided by the auxiliary of steamed hot dogs and hot (and I mean hot) chili (which was good) and wonderful desserts to choose from, also hot coffee and cold drinks.

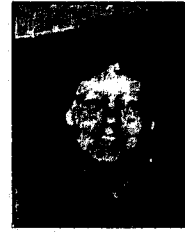

Monday, March 6, Town Chair for Republicans Becky Adams held a caucus meeting at her home to elect officers for the coming year and to conduct other business at hand and to elect delegates and alternates to the Republican State Convention, which will be held at Augusta Civic Center on May 5 and 6 this year. I have enjoyed going to these conventions in other years with Dr. Ralph and Harriett Brown and also with John Fox of Lovell, but it is time now to let the younger folks take over.

Do not forget that the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Hannah F. Richardson Tent 19 will meet at the home of Marilyn Jones, 7 Main Street, Norway, on March 22 at 7 p.m. I hope to see you members there.

Last Wednesday evening, March 8, there was a Planning Board meeting at the town office with seven members present to discuss several permits and discussion on other matters.

My last week's news did not name the late Vernon Poland as a brother of Dorothy Critser, who died recently.

A family get-together was enjoyed at our home for Jessie Hart's birthday. Those attending were Jessie and baby Landon, Kyle Komulainen, Sarah Lynch and Zack, Kellie Wing, Vinnie Lima, and Richard and Andrea Wing. Jessie received several presents. Cake and ice cream and pizza were served. We all had fun playing ping-pong during the evening.

ceiving the All-Academic Mountain Valley Conference All-Star Determination Award. Also, congratulations to Bailey Davis for receiving the Hustle Award and Second Team MVC All-Star Award. Telstar had a great girls' basketball team this year. They are the great-granddaughters of Tommy Poland of South Woodstock.

Thanks for all the cards and calls I received after my sister's death. I appreciated them all.

I visited with my sister, Evelyn Dunn, at Norway Rehabilitation Center one morning last week.

They were reading The Advertiser to patients. This seems like a nice way to keep them up on things going on in the community.

Spring weather seems to be here.

I sure hope we don't get a lot of snow to remind us winter is still around.

Jim Dunn stopped by Sunday for a visit; always glad to see him.

Quote of the Week: "I've learned that you don't know the value of a dollar until you've earned it yourself."

West Bethel

by Lorrie Hoeh

One day last week I decided to stop mourning the absence of winter and start welcoming spring. Whereupon three inches of heavy, wet snow fell. Of course, it disappeared within 24 hours, but still ... is there a message here? Every morning there is a bit less snow and ice, both of which continue to melt and evaporate at a steady pace. The East Branch is also opening up in places where it has been solidly frozen. And mud season has arrived on the forest road.

Carol Everett told me at Ladies' Workout Express last week that she had seen a flock of about 20 turkeys in her field. Mike and I heard the toms gobbling Sunday morning as we walked out with Jake. Early mornings are full of a cacophony of birdsong—chickadees, doves, titmice, cardinals, and who knows what else. Visitors to the feeder this past week included goldfinches, pine siskins, redpolls, as well as the chickadees, jays, and nuthatches. We have our very own "Woody Woodpecker" who returns each year to peck on one of our garage windows. He never seems to learn that the bird he sees is himself. Time to tape up newspaper on the inside again.

On Monday morning's walk, Jake and I met up with the new owners of the Mud City Schoolhouse. John and Sherry Colarusso are originally from New England but have been living in Florida for a number of years. They plan eventually to return to New England permanently, and in the meantime will have a base at the schoolhouse. Sherry is an educator, conducting professional development training for teachers. John is a self-described "computer geek." I allowed as how that's a good thing to be if one aspires to living in a remote area. We extend a big "welcome to the neighborhood" to Sherry and John.

Speaking of Florida, Jane Hosterman has just returned from three weeks of vacationing there with son Richie and daughter Susie. Richie rents the same place on Long Boat Key, just offshore from Sarasota, every year, and Jane is invited to come along. The days were filled with interesting excursions, beachcombing, and just plain hanging out. Jane returned with a bucketful of shells, which, if I know her, will eventually show up

BRIEFLY, WINTER
It snowed enough in the region last week to cover the ground for the first time in weeks. About two inches fell Thursday evening, causing many accidents. But the storm left the Bethel Common with a nice winter look early Friday morning. The snow melted over the weekend. (Photo: A. Aloisio) at the church fair in some new incarnation. She says that after three weeks it was "time to come home." And we are glad to have her back. She was pleasantly surprised to have a bright male cardinal greet her soon after her return.

On Sunday afternoon Mike and I attended an "Intrepid Trekkers" program, put on by the Senior College. Featured speakers were Bonnie Pooley and Mac Davis, both teachers at Gould, and both registered Maine Guides. They have their own business of taking groups on canoe trips in northern Maine in summer—the Allagash, the Rangeley Lakes, and the West Branch/Chesuncook. We were treated to a wonderful slide show and narrative, as well as tips on technique and gear, not to mention the inimitable dry humor of both Mac and Bonnie.

Even though it would be nice to have some snow for the Ski-A-Thon this Saturday, it is very nice to hear the birds and sniff the gentle airs of spring. Time to start seedlings indoors and complete those garden plans.

The Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce along with the Mollycodd Chapter of Trout Unlimited will be hosting a Free Family Fishing Festival on Saturday, June 3.

It will be held along the banks of the Androscoggin River at both Big Adventure Center and Bethel Outdoor Adventure & Campground.

The festival is free for all families including three generations and single-parent families.

The event schedule is as follows: 9 to 11 a.m.: Casting Instruction with Trout Unlimited's "First Cast" Program for Kids. Equipment (rods/reels) provided by Maine's Hooked on Fishing Not on Drugs Program; 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.: Fishing Derby at "Covered Bridge Pond" at Big Adventure Center; 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.: Outdoor Barbecue (fee), proceeds to benefit Trout Unlimited; 1 to 4 p.m.: Fly Tying Workshops, materials provided; 1 to 4 p.m.: Backyard Casting with HOF-NOD (Hooked on Fishing not on Drugs).

The Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife will have its outdoor display of live, native fish. The Maine Conservation School will have a display celebrating its 50th anniversary. Other displays, radio and TV personality appearances are planned, but not finalized.

This festival will be promoted through the "TakeMeFishing" National Fishing and Boating Week (June 3 through 12) project of the Recreational Boating and Fishing Foundation.

The chamber is requesting that you help to promote this event by listing it on your own website and developing a lodging and or festival package to promote through the chamber's website, your own website and visitmaine.com and/or donating door-prize giveaways such as free pizza, movie tickets, gift certificates and any other items that would be appropriate for family prizes.

Please contact the chamber staff by e-mail at info@bethelmaine.com or call 824-2282 to contribute your door prizes.

Please let the chamber staff know if you will be offering a family package for the weekend, what the package includes, and the price. Thanks so much.

From O.C.R.S.W.C.

During the month of February 2006 Oxford County Recyclable Solid Waste Corporation (OCSRWC) processed the following:

Shipped 45.76 tons of corrugated cardboard with an estimated sale value of $2,730.

Shipped 43.34 tons of newspapers, magazines and junk mail with an estimated sale value of $2,941.

Shipped 17.82 tons of non-corrugated cardboard with an estimated value of $798.

Shipped 16.92 tons of HDPE #2 plastic bottles and jugs with an estimated sale value of $11,294.

Shipped 4.27 tons of aluminum cans with an estimated sale value of $3,416.

Shipped 21.59 tons of tin with an estimated sale value of $1,720.

Shipped 149.70 tons of material at an estimated sale value of $22,899.

Estimated cost to trash the same 149.70 tons material — $12,724.50 (based on average tipping and hauling fee of $85 per ton).

Estimated avoided cost for February — $35,623.50.

Recycled 118.98 tons of paper product saving 2,066 trees. It takes 17 average sized trees to make one ton of paper.

Recycled 140.50 tons or 281,000 pounds of material.

The Corporation is looking for office paper and HDPE #2 plastic bottles and jugs. Markets are now paying $100 per ton for office paper and $780 per ton for HDPE #2 plastic.

Congratulations to the following recycling teams of: Tri-Town for packing eight out of nine cardboard containers with over 1,000 pounds each. Stoneham/Waterford packed three out of five cardboard containers with over 1,000 pounds each. Greenwood/Woodstock packed one out of three cardboard containers weighing in at over 1,000 pounds each. West Paris packed two out of four cardboard containers weighing in at over 1,000 pounds. Gould Academy packed one out of one cardboard container weighing in at over 2,000 pounds.

Packing cardboard containers with over 1,000 pounds is time consuming. Hauling a fully loaded container to the recycling plant in Norway/Paris is cost efficient for the Corporation. We appreciate your efforts.

As the figures show, recycling does pay. Thank you for participation.

From the Bethel Senior Citizens

The Bethel Senior Citizens Club met March 8 at the Bethel Methodist Church for their meeting and luncheon with 31 members present. President Nancy Mercer conducted the meeting and led the salute to the flag.

Reports were given by Barbara Mahler and Arlene Lowell. The door prize was won by Grace Douglass and the raffle by Nancy Brown.

The next meeting will be April 12 at 11 a.m. at the Locke Mills Legion Hall. Nancy Kimball will bring ceramic items for members to paint.

Rosabelle Tiff reported on the Christmas Party plans. It was voted to go to the Bethel Inn for a noon meal.

The speaker was Randy Bennett from the Bethel Historical Society. He presented a very interesting slide show on the Mahoosuc Range Area. He also had handouts for members to take.

March birthdays: Alberta Angevine, Muriel Butters, Pauline Davis, Elizabeth Gilbert, Mildred Jackson, Sharon Kaiser, Mary Keniston, Marna McGinniss, Judith Webster.

From the Bethel Historical Society's Regional History Center

The deadline for enrollment in the Bethel Historical Society's 2006 Winter/Spring course, "Maine in the Civil War," will be this evening (March 16) at the society's Regional History Center, in the Dr. Moses Mason House Meeting Room, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Three other sessions (March 30, April 13, 27) plus a tour of Civil War veteran resting places in Bethel cemeteries led by Stanley R. Howe, executive director of the Bethel Historical Society, will also be offered.

Howe will also conduct the course sessions. The course fee for nonmembers will be $20 and $15 for members. The text for the course will be "A Distant War Comes Home: Maine in the Civil War Era." The book is regularly $14.95 plus tax in the shop, but will be offered to course participants for $10 (including tax). The course, designed to emphasize little-known aspects of this tragic war's effect on Maine and the state's contribution to it, is open to all interested persons. Please call the society office at 824-2908 or (800) 824-2910 or come to the first class to register. One can also register online by sending an e-mail to info@bethelhistorical.org.

director of the Center for New England Culture at the University of New Hampshire, will deliver the 2006 Hall Memorial Lecture at this year's Sudbury Canada Days on Aug. 11. Dr. Watters, a professor of English at the University of New Hampshire, holds an A.B. from Dartmouth College and a Ph.D. from Brown University. His topic for the Hall Lecture will be "New England's Legacy: Memory and Identity in an America Region" and will be the first event during the annual summer heritage festival. A prolific writer and gifted lecturer, Dr. Watters recently edited the Encyclopedia of New England with Burt Feintuch, which was published by Yale University.

This annual lecture is supported by income from the Ralph and Marion Hall Memorial Fund, established in 1991 by the Bethel Historical Society trustees from a bequest from Marion Hall. Its purpose is to bring outstanding scholars of the New England past to discuss some aspect of the region's history. Since 1992, some of the leading figures in New England history have discussed everything from colonial land use to classic architecture. The lecture is free and open to all interested persons.

From the Pine Tree State 4-H Foundation

The "Building Tomorrow, Today" campaign got in full swing in January of 2006 and is a campaign to support youth education in the western mountains of Oxford County by building a trust fund administered by the Pine Tree

State 4-H Foundation.

This fund would assure that the current Youth Development programs in Oxford County would be available in the future.

4-H has a rich tradition of youth education across Maine and has grown tremendously in Oxford County to reach over 6,000 youth annually. Ages of the youth participating in the Youth Development in Oxford County range from 3 to 19 years and include programs in global education, service learning, career education, team leadership science and technology, after-school enrichment, and all the traditional 4-H programs.

People wishing to make a donation can contact the Oxford County Extension Office to get more information, at 743-6329 or (800) 287-1482.

From Area Resources for Kids

The ARK Program (Area Resources for Kids) has been successfully running spring and fall enrichment programs for area youth for 13 years. Programs consist of hands-on opportunities in the visual and performing arts, international cultures, and sciences. Workshops are held Saturday mornings, divided into two sessions according to age, and fees are optional.

The first session is for ages 3 to 6 and the second one ages 7 and up. All of the programs are held at the Oxford Extension Office at 9 Olson Road in South Paris, with the exception of the Clayworks session, which is held at Christian Ridge Pottery Studio.

This spring's sessions are as follows: April 15, Eggs, Eggs & More Eggs with Cynthia Tinsley; April 22, Miniature Fantasy Gardens with Mike Murphy; April 29, Collage & Poetry with Lisa Moore; May 6, Clayworks with Scott Currie; and May 13, Carp Streamers with Jen Otterson.

For more information or to register for the above workshops, please contact the Extension Office at 743-6329 or (800) 287-1482.

"When you live out of state and you hire a builder to construct a house hundreds of miles away trust has got to be a huge factor. We hired Francis Dumont of Maine Custom Builders and quite frankly never had to worry. The construction was completed on time without issues and the quality was above expectations." "It is seldom that when you deal with a builder that they actually stand by their work even after the warranty period is over. Francis Dumont of Maine Custom Builders is one of those rare builders!"

BEFORE BUYING A HOME!

Where do you start when you are ready to buy a home? Before you begin looking for a home, you have to make some decisions. You need to decide what is important to you when purchasing your home. Before starting out on your home search it is a good idea to sit down and develop a list of what is important and what would you like in your new home. Your list could include schools, neighborhood, amenities, number of bedrooms, number of baths, a basement, a separate dining room, 2-story family room or foyer, one level ranch plan, master bedroom on the main level, special financing, seller willing to cover closing costs and the list goes on and on.

An experienced buyer real estate agent can help you through the process. There is no such thing as a perfect house, therefore once you have developed your list you should begin to prioritize it. You can prioritize into, "must have", "should have" and "would be nice to have". By having a clear understanding what you want in your new home, and the priority of those items, you will be in a much better position to decide whether you want to put an offer on a house you see and like. It is also a good idea to consider whether you want to purchase a new or pre-owned home.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our deep appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy and caring shown to our families, with cards, telephone calls, home and Veterans' Home visits, and food by relatives and our many friends in the loss of our husband, father, grandfather, uncle and friend, "Earlton 'Lefty' Keniston. A special thank you to Rev. Norman Rust and Pastor Edward Gammon of the Albany Congregational Church for the meaningful service, to Edna York, Marlon Howe, and Jeannie Stone for their special music, and to the Ladies of the Church for their delicious and assortment of luncheon food served in the vestry of the church.

We must never forget the Unit C of special care givers at the Maine Veterans' Home in South Paris, to Dr. Kumaki for his patient care, and Dr. Story and staff at the Stephens Memorial Hospital, we do so appreciate your fine care. And lastly to Clifford Grey and Drew of the Greenleaf Funeral Home a grateful thank you.

Card of Thanks

The family of Edith Andrews Hathaway wishes to thank each one who has helped us in this time of our need. The outpouring of support, love, food, cards and care buoyed us, bringing comfort and hope, reminding us anew how much our Mother was loved, respected and remembered.

Your visits to her, Ellsworth, were enjoyed by each of us, too. You were so faithful. The carvings, she enjoyed as much as Dad had. We shall treasure them; Jane's telephone calls in the evenings brought a happy interlude. Alice, the baked beans and peas and other goodies, meant a lot to her and to us.

We shall always be indebted to those of you who made it possible for Mother to remain at home as she wanted: Bessie, Ellen, Lola, Elaine and Luella, Beth and JoAnn. Your sincere concern and attention humbled us and made the journey nicer for Mother and bearable for us.

To those from Androscoggin Home Health, the short time you cared for her was truly helpful and appreciated. To Dr. DeCarolis, Wendy, Diana, Mary Lou, Merilee Sue, Connie, Donna, Paulett and Shelly from Beacon Hospice, whether you physically helped Mother, or picked up a phone, your service made it all easier and possible.

The memory of the reception at the house after the funeral will always be a highlight. There was as much food as in the days when Mother did such things. It was good to gather there once more with friends and family.

With humble and sincere and grateful thanks,

Phyllis H. Jordan

Your smile, your touch,
How I miss your laugh,
The way you moved,
And tossed your head,
Hair aswirl, I miss you,
